

Reading the Legend

Sectional chart legend worksheet

Student Name: _____ Date: _____

Figure numbers refer to the FAA Airman Knowledge Testing Supplement for Sport Pilot, Recreational Pilot, Remote Pilot, and Private Pilot (FAA-CT-8080-2H). Use the sectional chart legend in the supplement as needed.

1. Information about roads can be found in the _____ section of the legend.
2. Information about Distance Measuring Equipment (DME) can be found in the _____ section of the legend.
3. Refer to Figure 76. The magenta isogonic line that runs beside Pierre Regional Airport shows a magnetic variation of _____.
4. Refer to Figure 76. The airspace directly overlying Pierre Regional Airport is Class _____.
5. Parachute jumping areas are found in the _____ section of the legend.
6. A circle with a "C" in it represents _____.
7. Refer to Figure 75, Area 2. _____ is the CTAF for Buckeye.
8. Refer to Figure 25, Area 7. _____ is the field elevation of Air Park Dallas.
9. Refer to Figure 26, Area 2. _____ is the AWOS frequency for Cooperstown.
10. Refer to Figure 23, Area 1. _____ is the length of the runway at Allendale County Airport.
11. Refer to Figure 80. The Class G airspace at Blake Airport extends from _____ to _____.
12. On a sectional chart, numbers in parentheses beneath an obstruction represent _____.
13. Refer to Figure 80. Does the Montrose airport have a control tower? _____ Why or why not? _____
14. Refer to Figure 79. _____ is the class of airspace at the Sioux City Airport.
15. Refer to Figure 78. _____ is the ceiling of the Class D airspace at Sioux City Airport.